Adverse action taken against a professional credential, a felony conviction or plea of guilty does not automatically disqualify an individual from being eligible to sit for the CMA (AAMA) Certification/Recertification Examination. The Certification Department will review the information submitted on an individual basis and determine whether the incident(s) has a direct relationship to a potential violation(s) of the Candidate/Certificant Code of Conduct. If a direct relationship is found, the Certifying Board may impose sanctions, including barring a candidate from becoming certified by AAMA Certifying Board either indefinitely or for a designated period of time.

This waiver, if granted, is subject to review and modification and/or retraction if the applicant experiences any additional violations including criminal conviction(s) and plea(s) of guilty. Applicants are obligated to immediately report such conviction(s), pleas, or conduct to the AAMA Certification Department. Failure to do so will result in a re-evaluation and modification and/or retraction of any previously granted felony waiver.

The policies of the Certifying Board are subject to change without notice.
